Collective of Pueblos Originarios in Diaspora	We are the Collective of Pueblos Originarios in Diaspora. Our current realities and existence disrupt systemic forms of erasure. As such, collectively, our mission is to (re)claim our indigenous and multiple identities from our Pueblos Originarios of Latin America. Too long have we been placed in the shadows. Too long have we been dismissed. We aim to create a safe space of belonging for Indigenous students and their cultures, traditions, homelands, and languages. We come from communities where poverty and lack of access to resources within the U.S. and homelands are predominant. Our resilience and brilliance, accumulated by our ancestors, provides us with the desire and willingness to continue in diaspora. We're not in the past. We're still here.	https://shoreline.ucsb.edu/student_community?club_id=54843	Instagram - @cpod_sb

Worldhealer's Global Awareness Club at UCSB	Our club's mission is to promote global awareness by offering educational workshops in local K-12 schools and hosting events in the community throughout the quarter/year. Through these workshops and events, we hope to expose people to other cultures and important global issues ranging from climate change to anything YOU find important and value.	https://shoreline.ucsb.edu/student_community?club_id=29814	Instagram - @worldhealer_inc Website - https://www.worldhealer.org/global-awareness-program
